INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

Web Development Intern | Zidio | Certificate | GitHub: IntellMeet

May 2026 – Jul 2026

- Developed and optimized 3+ web interfaces for real-world client projects, improving UI consistency.
- Resolved 15+ bugs and enhanced user experience across 2 major web applications.

PROJECTS

Neuronex – Elderly Health Care System | Python, Web Application | GitHub

- Built an elderly healthcare support system with 5+ features: medicine reminders, health tracking, and emergency alerts.
- Implemented real-time caregiver monitoring helping senior citizens manage 10+ daily health activities.
- Designed a Python backend with a reminder scheduler and alert-notification pipeline, letting caregivers remotely track medication adherence and vitals.
- Structured the codebase around modular services for reminders, tracking, and alerts, making the system easy to extend with new health-monitoring features.

UI Enhancement Project | React.js, Frontend Development | GitHub

- Developed 5+ responsive UI pages using React.js, reducing component redundancy by 35% via reusable architecture.
- Enhanced UI/UX with modern layouts cutting average navigation time by 20%.
- Built a reusable component library with modular, theme-consistent styling to speed up future feature rollout.
- Applied consistent design tokens and layout patterns across pages, improving visual coherence and easing handoff for future contributors.

Hostel Roommate System | GitHub

- Built a system to help students find and manage compatible hostel roommates based on preferences and availability.
- Implemented features for roommate matching, profile management, and room allocation tracking.
- Designed preference-based matching logic weighing lifestyle compatibility, letting students browse and shortlist roommates before final allocation.
- Structured student and room data models to support scalable allocation tracking across multiple hostels.
